

Application Guide – Rolls-Royce Defense Naval Applicability

The information provided in this Application Guide identifies the terms and conditions which apply to purchase orders placed by Rolls-Royce Defense Naval. “Rolls-Royce Defense Naval” means any Rolls-Royce company placing an order for or in relation to Rolls-Royce’s Naval businesses globally.

For purchase orders not placed by Rolls-Royce Defense Naval, see the separate “Application Guide” in the “General Conditions of Purchase” section of this web page.

Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions which apply to purchase orders placed by Rolls-Royce Defense Naval are as follows:

1. Written Agreements

Where a written agreement is in place between the supplier and the ordering Rolls-Royce company for the deliverable(s) stated on a purchase order, then that agreement shall apply.

On April 1, 2019 Rolls-Royce plc sold its Commercial Marine business to Kongsberg Gruppen ASA and Commercial Marine became an external RR Defense Naval supplier.

For RR Defense Naval purchase orders placed with Kongsberg after April 1, 2019 please use the SAP standard message that applies to your purchase order. These standard messages cite to the applicable terms that apply to Kongsberg purchase orders.

2. Purchase Order Reference

Where a purchase order issued by Rolls-Royce Defense Naval states the applicable terms and conditions, such stated terms and conditions shall apply.

3. Others

Where a purchase order issued by Rolls-Royce Defense Naval does not state any applicable terms and conditions, or where it states the applicability of the General Conditions of Purchase, and where there is no applicable written agreement, then the following terms shall be used:
